EMBRACING THE UNKNOWN
CHANGE FOR CHANCES

15 October 2019 – China Everbright Limited (“Everbright”, stock code: 165.HK), the flagship overseas investment platform of China Everbright Group, has announced that it will host its 8th Everbright Investment Conference in Zhengzhou, China from 23 to 25 October 2019.

The Everbright Investment Conference is an annual event for the alternative asset management industry. Since 2012, more than 4,000 investment professionals, company leaders and business partners from all over the world have graced the Conference, making it an influential industry forum and high-level communication platform.

The world today is undergoing an unprecedented change. The international and domestic environment in which China is involved has undergone some major changes, with the economy facing severe challenges. Entrepreneurs and investment institutions have been bearing the brunt of these significant changes. Given these circumstances, under the theme of “Embrace the unknown, Change for chances”, the 8th Everbright Investment Conference will focus on cross-border investment and the development prospects of various industries in China, inviting industry leaders, global LPs of Everbright’s various funds, company management from investees, as well as financial institution executives – around 700 people in all – to encourage entrepreneurs and investors from all around the globe to boost confidence through speeches, forums and one-on-one communications.

Mr. ZHAO Wei, Executive Director and Chief Executive Officer of Everbright, will deliver an opening speech. The Conference has also invited Mr. YANG Weimin, member of the National Committee of the Chinese People’s Political Consultative Conference (CPPCC), Deputy Director of the Subcommittee of the Economy, and Mr. TU Guangshao, Chairman of the Shanghai Finance Institute, alongside other financial and academic leaders to attend. They will be giving keynote speeches on current hot topics.

Furthermore, multi-asset fund managers at Everbright will be leading senior management over 10 renowned investments in the panel discussion regarding four main themes, namely “Focusing on the New Economy: Global New Technology Layout that Embraces Intelligence”, “Focusing on the Outlook of the Auto Industry: Smart Driving, High-end Manufacturing and Cross-border Investment”, “Focusing on Real Estate: Real Estate Investment Amid Economic Transformation” and “Focusing on Start-up Investment: Development of and Opportunities in the Technology Industry with New Cycle of 5G”.

Guests that will participate in the panel discussion include China Life Investment, Taikang Asset, Wealth Management Subsidiary China Merchants Bank, CITIC Securities, JD.com, Terminus, Burke Porter Group, Arbe Robotics, Geely, Xiao-I Robot, Huajie IMI, and CAXA, among others.

How will financial institutions and corporations overcome changes and create opportunities, while seeking for new highlights in investment and development amid the current uncertain macro environment?

The “8th Everbright Investment Conference” will present answers, in Zhengzhou this October.
